

BABCOCK UNIVERSITY
ILISHAN-REMO, OGUN STATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND HUMANITIES
EDUCATION AND GENERAL STUDIES UNIT

DEGREE EXAMINATION, 1ST SEMESTER 2008/2009
GEDS 311: INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY##

EXAMINERS: Dr. J.M.A. Oyinloye, Dr. Ruth Aderanti, Dr. Sarah Sopekan
Date: Dec. 2008
Total Marks: 60 Time Allowed: 1 ½ Hrs

STUDENT'S NAME: _____
COURSE OF STUDY: _____
Instructions: Answer all questions MATRIC NO: _____

SECTION A: Multiple Choices (10 Points) Circle the letter of the alternative that represent the best answer to each questions.

1. The field of psychology that is interested in the internal mental processes
a. educational b. social c. cognitive d. forensic
2. A researcher who wishes to find out the opinion of Babcock University students on the vegetarian meat will use which method of investigation.
a. Naturalistic method b. case study method
c. experimental method d. survey method
3. 50 years old Chief George can no more move around. Most often, he sits at a place for hours and urinates without knowing. What part of the brain has been affected?
a. hypothalamus b. cerebellum c. cerebral cortex d. medulla
4. A research conducted by an undergraduate which involved watching preschool children while going about their normal routine is an example of
a. case study b. Participant observation
c. naturalistic observation d. survey method
5. Mr. John Alpan was invited to present a paper at a seminar organized for Bankers. The moment he started the presentation, he began to sweat in his palm, his voice, his hands and feet were shaking. What part of the peripheral nervous system do you think was active?
a. Somatic nerves b. Sympathetic nerves
c. Parasympathetic nerves d. Central Nervous System
6. _____ was the proponent of Functionalism in Psychology
a. William James b. John Dewey c. Stanley Hall d. J.M.A Oyinloye
7. _____ was the first Professor of Psychology
a. William Wundt b. John Dewey c. Stanley Hall d. James Mackeen Cattell
8. The first Ph.D. in Psychology was awarded at the United States of America in the year
a. 1875 b. 1876 c. 1877 d. 1878
9. _____ is a tentative explanation of an event or relationship
a. hypothesis b. Insomnia c. acquisition d. hypnosis 10. Psychology is defined as the scientific study of
a. Observable behaviour b. conscious and unconscious
c. Behaviour and mental processes d. cognitive processes